

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That all the property, estate and effects hitherto vested in any corporate body, or in any person or persons for the use and benefit of Public Schools in Baltimore city, and all the property, estate and effects which may hereafter be acquired for that purpose shall be vested in the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, who shall have full power to dispose of the same by sale, exchange or otherwise, whenever the interest of the Public Schools may require it. And that all the property, estate and effects hitherto vested in any corporate body, or in any person or persons for the use and benefit of the Public Schools of the several counties, and all the property, estate and effects which may hereafter be acquired for that purpose shall be vested in the Board of Commissioners of Public Schools of the several counties, and said Board of Commissioners shall have full power to dispose of the same by sale, exchange or otherwise, whenever the interest of the Public Schools may require it;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Stockbridge submitted the following amendment:

Article 2, section 12, strike out all after "that" in line 1, and insert, "there shall be levied for the use of the Public Schools in the several counties and the city of Baltimore in each year such sum as the several Boards of Commissioners of Public Schools shall require, not less than twelve cents on the hundred dollars of assessable property in said counties and city respectively;"

Mr. Lester submitted the following amendment to the amendment:

Strike out the words "not less than twelve cents on the hundred dollars," and insert the words "one and be," in the amendment;

Which was adopted.

The question then recurring on the adoption of the amendment as amended,

It was adopted.

Mr. Clarke submitted the following amendment:

"Strike out the third article ;"

Which was rejected.

Mr. Stubbs submitted the following amendment:

Article 3, section 1, amend by striking out "such of," in line 2;

Which was adopted.
